-Bring your bacon, wool and lard to Drum's and get the best price.

-John Smith of Poplar Bluff is visiting the family of L. Mayer.

-Gents', Boys' and Children's summer hats at Drum's by the wholesale.

-Don't fail to read the inside pages of the Press this week.

-Boys, young men and old men, Drum's is the place to get your shirts.

-A boy, a firecracker, an explosion; a fresh made grave-that's all.

-Twenty pounds of nice light brown sugar at Drum's for one dollar.

-See King & Revelle's display advertisement, which appears in to-day's paper.

-Boys, young men and old men, Drum's is the place to get your summer hats.

-Mrs. F. M. Wells and Miss Belle Wells went to Jackson Tuesday on a visit.

-King & Revelle now have the completest and best line of shoes in Bollinger County. [21]

-The next presidential election will take place on Tuesday, November the 8th, of this year.

-Ladies, lookout for that large supply of new summer dress goods just coming to Drum's.

-Chris McCans, who is working at Farmington, spent a couple of days at home last week.

-Ladies, don't forget the lovely presents that Mrs. Jaques gives with hats bought of her before the Fourth.

-The white man lives longer in the north than he does in the south. Vice versa with the negro.

-Gentlemen, Drum's is the place to buy your summer coats and vests. He has just received a large supply.

-Barnum's show stopped in St. Louis long enough to collect $100,000 for admission tickets recently.

-Reform movements are like bicycles-difficult to start, though easy to keep going; but let them stop, if only for an instant, and they topple over.

-Married, at Ironton, Mo., on Wednesday, June the 23d, Mr. Samuel Bowman of Little Rock, Ark., to Miss Anna Gherman of Bismark, by Rev. Shouse, at his residence. Mr. Bowman is a son of Rev. B. L. Bowman of this place, and now has an honorable position in a telegraph office at Little Rock, Ark. Sam and his young bride spent Saturday and Sunday with his

-An adjourned term of County Court meets next Wednesday.

-Black lawns, white lawns, figured lawns, white dress goods, black and fancy colored satins, all at Drum's at prices to suit everyone.

-An effort is being made to get a club from some of the Southeast towns to play a match game of base ball with the home nine at this place the Fourth.

-A. Bohnack is agent for all kinds of grain and grass cutting machinery manufactured by the Milwaukee Harvesting Company.

Hon. Moses Whybark attended a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee at St. Louis last week. Mr. Whybark is in Fredericktown this week on legal business.

-Use Dr. Jaques' Baby Syrup for summer complaint of teething children-pleasant to take and will not injure the most delicate child.

-You can purchase from Dr. Jaques, Lutesville, sufficient wall paper to paper a room 15 ft. square and 9 ft. high, as low as $1.50. This includes the border under the ceiling.

-Missa Dell Caldwell of Cape county, who has been in sunny Florida for a couple of months, arrived here Friday en route home. Miss Caldwell will teach the primary department of the Lutesville school.

-White and figured lawns at Drum's for only 5 cents per yard. Also a large stock of lady's fans, and umbrellas and parasols from the cheapest to the best.

-Get a due bill for your produce at King & Revelle's and exchange it for a new hat at Mrs. Jaques'. More than ten per cent. taken off all hats sold before July 4th.

-One man shipped from this place 1,208 frogs. They were killed in Little river, east of this place. It is claimed that the shipper will realize over $200 out of the shipment. During the day the hunter shoots the frogs and at night he lights his lantern and puts it into his boat and can gather his frogs into the boat with his hands.-Kennett Clipper.

-The Milwaukee Harvesting Co. is in the field with some greatly improved machinery this year. A. Bohnack is their agent at this place.

-Ladies and Gentlemen, you can get shoes at Drum's for less money than at any other place in Bollinger Co.-Why? Because he carries the largest and best selected stock in the county, he pays cash for all his goods, which enables him to undersell anybody else.

-Johnson Goree and James Rauls were arrested by Constable Slinkard and brought before Squire Bowman June the 28th, on a charge of entering the dwelling of W. E. Moore and stealing a lot of flour, bacon, &c. They were bound over until the 7th day of July for preliminary examination.

NOTICE.-The ladies of the towns of Marble Hill and Lutesville will give a dinner on the 4th of July at Conrad's Pavilion, for the benefit of the Baptist Church in Marble Hill, now in course of erection. A good square meal for 25 cts. Let everybody patronize the ladies

-Those lovely millinery goods which Miss Rosa Fischer is disposing of at such low prices are the talk of the town-the sensation of the season: Go and see them.

-J. A. Brass, agent for the Hunt & Adams Steel Champion Road Machine, will be in Marble Hill, on Friday, July the 8th, with one of his road graders. He invites all who are interested in good roads (especially roadoverseers) to come out and see the machine in operation. He would like the use of six horses.

-Now is the time for every family to have a bottle of Dr. Jaques' Good Samaritan in the house to relieve Pain, Cholera Morbus and other summer sickness. Will often save the expense of a physician.

-Next Monday every citizen should quit his work and spend the day in genuine patriotic celebration of the 116th anniversary of America's independence. Listen:

"Great God! we thank thee for this home-
This bonny birthland of the free;
Where wanderers from afar may come,
And breathe the air of liberty!
Still may her flowers untrampled spring,
Her harvests wave, her cities rise;
And yet, till Time shall fold his wing,
Remain Earth's loveliest Paradise."

-Now is your time, ladies! Mrs. Hall proposes to give ten per cent. discount on millinery goods from now until after the Fourth. Don't fail to call and see her goods and save that ten cents on every dollar.

-If you want to be sure of getting shoes that have sole leather counters, insoles, middle soles, outsoles and heels, and want to use economy in wear, always buy Brown, Desnoyers' Shoe Co.'s fine shoes. These celebrated shoes are sold by one first-class dealer in each place. Inquire for them at Kings & Revelle's, Lutesville, Mo. [21]

-Lowden & St. James Comique Operative Company, which gave three or four entertainments in this place and Lutesville a short time ago, got as far as Farmington; gave an entertainment Friday night and disbanded Saturday, one of the firm skipping with the boodle being the cause. The company was stranded when it reached this place. The Post says charitable citizens assisted the remainder of the company to St. Louis.

-King & Revelle, Lutesville, have a large stock of ready made clothing for men and youths which they will sell for cash, at actual cost, for the next thirty days, in order to make room for our immense stock of fall and winter goods, which will be on hand soon. Call and secure a bargain. Respectfully,
KING & REVELLE, Lutesville.

-Prof. E. R. Graham is with us again, after spending a month with his family in Saline county. He will devote all his time between now and the 8th of September to booming the M.-S. Academy, and will likely be around to see you. The Professor is energetic in his work and he earnestly hopes to have a large boarding hall built on Academy Hill before the beginning of the next scholastic year for the accommodation of lady students. He is sacrificing his own personal interest in an endeavor to establish the M.-S. Academy, and make it self-sustaining and the property

A select party was given at the residence of Mr. Waldor Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Stella Waldo, and a real pleasant time was had.

Mrs. Green, who has been here on a visit, left last week for her home in Indiana. Her son, ebitor Green of the Banner, accompanied her as far as St. Louis.

The season is already over and in order not to carry over any of this summer's stock, we will give you immense bargains. Come and be convinced that we mean it. Mrs. S. V. Jaques.

To add further solemnity to the event, a prominent Boston couple recently had the marriage ceremony performed with their hands joined over the grave of the bride's mother. Since it has started in Boston no one need be surprised should the practice become popular, and we shudder when we attempt to think where it will end. Horrid men, cruel men, may adopt this plan to get rid of intended mother-in-law who they believe would prove objectionable! Ugh!

Don't judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one and the tailor made the other. Don't judge a man by his family, for Cain belonged to a good family. Don't judge a man by his failures in life, for many a man fails because he is too honest to succeed. Don't judge a man by the house he lives in, for the lizard and the snake have the grandest habit of all. When a man dies, he survives him and he has left behind him who bends over the grave and
